Outreach Ministries

Mother's Day Out

Last year, Mother's Day Out had 4 little girls. At this time, 11 are already enrolled. Vonda Bearden says, "there is only one more opening". We are so thankful for the growth in this program, the advisory board and Vonda Bearden who do a great job. Vonda needs substitutes who can help her out. This is a paid position. If you think you would like to be a helper contact, Vonda Bearden at 512-629-3014.

Roadside Clean up

We need a volunteer to "head up" our road cleanup program. If you are interested in leading this ministry, please contact John Donnell. This is an excellent community ministry as we keep the two miles of Highway 20 clean.

Lifeline Chaplaincy's Soft Touch

The Lifeline Chaplaincy's Soft Touch ministry has just completed one year. To date our Bastrop Church has sent 644 pillows and 335 "Ouch Buddies." Bastrop received recognition in Lifeline's summer newsletter with a message from a patient who received a pillow—"Tell the ladies I love them." The pillows and "Ouch buddies" provide comfort to patients in hospitals in Central Texas. Patients use the pillow under their arms if they have an IV, under their necks or wherever gives them comfort. The "Ouch Buddies" are little pillows originally designed for children to hold when they are in pain or are afraid. However, we are finding that adults also love the humor and comfort provided by these little creatures. You will notice on the display in the foyer how creative our volunteers are at giving them personality!

Eight workers at CIA (Christians in Action) dedicated last Tuesday to finishing pillows for Lifeline Chaplaincy's Soft Touch. Several of the group have been working on this project for months. We were able to complete 239 pillows and 50 "Ouch Buddies" for delivery to Lifeline. Join us on Tuesdays at 10 a.m. You will be blessed and so will the rest of us.
